WAKISSHA JOINT MOCK EXAMINATIONS
SCORING GUIDE
Uganda Certificate of Education
Literature 208/1
July/August 2026

SECTION A

Item 1

(a) Basis of Assessment (ST)
- Identification of setting
- Illustration of setting

Expected response;
- Physical setting – Obi's father's sitting room and later Obi's bed room.
- Time setting – at night, after family prayers.
  - Stormy / rainy weather.
- Sociocultural setting – Obi's family; extended family including, his father, mother, sisters and grandchildren; igbo culture and its teaching on respect of elders etc.

Success criteria

Well illustrated - 3 aspects of setting	= 06 scores
Well illustrated -2 aspects of setting	= 04 scores
Well illustrated -1 aspect of setting	= 02 scores
3 aspects with no illustration	= 02 scores
1-2 aspects without illustration	= 02 scores

(b) Basis of assessment (XT)
- Identification of character relationship(s)
- Illustration of character relationship(s)

Expected response
- Affectionate / loving
- Respectful
- Symbiotic / co-dependent
- Parent to child relationship
- Harmonious / Amicable

Success criteria

Well illustrated - 4 and above	(06 scores)
Well illustrated - 2 – 3	(04 scores)
Only one well illustrated	(02 scores)
No illustrations	(02 scores)

(c) Basis of assessment (TQ)
- Identifications of narrative techniques.
- Illustration of the effectiveness of the narrative techniques.

Expected Responses
- Dialogue
- Description
- Flashback / Reminiscence
- Reminiscence
- Third person omniscient narrator
- Irony

© WAKISSHA Joint Mock Examinations 2026

- Proverbs
- Similes
- Characterization and setting
- Inter monologue

Success criteria
5 and above = 06 scores
3 – 4scores = 03 scores
1 –2 = 02 scores

(d) Basis of Assessment (RV)
- Identification of relevance
- Illustration of relevance.

Expected responses
- There's poverty in the society.
- Children who succeed / go to school look after their parents.
- Some female siblings contribute less to their parents' family when they begin to have own children.
- It's is difficult to survive / sustain life entirely on one's pension.
- Many science students are supported in universities through student's loans.
- There are always fights between siblings but that does not stop them from loving one another. etc.(sibling rivaling)

Success criteria
Well explained -04 and above = 06 scores
Well explained -02 – 03 = 04 scores
Well explained 01 = 02scores
The score for section A = a + b + c + d = 24 scores.
No specific relevance scores 00

Item 2 SECTION B

Basis of Assessment (XAP)
Aspect (XAP): Character Appeal
Identification of the character and how he/she is appealing / admirable.
Illustration of the identified appealing characters trait.

The candidate is expected to select a text of choice, which must be a set book. Identity a character of admirable traits (Good character traits), explain why such a character is appealing.

The candidate should guard against choosing a villain.

The text chosen may be a novel, a play or a poetry anthology (with reference to one poem).

Success criteria
Well illustrated - 07and above = 06 scores
Well illustrated - 04 – 06 = 04 scores
Well illustrated - 01 – 03 = 02 scores

Maximum score = 06

N.B: A learner can also look at dramatic appeal in a character who does not have positive / good traits.

CamScanner

- The learners ideas should be coherent, logical with a right tense.
- Learners who choose wrong texts scores 00.
- The essay should have a clear introduction and conclusion.

Item 3

Basis of Assessment
Aspect (TH): Themes
Identification of themes
Illustration of the identified themes.

The candidate is expected to select a text of reference, which must be a set book.
Identity the themes and ideas the particular text develops and explain item.
The text chosen may be a novel, a play or a poetry anthology (with reference to multiple poems)

Same rules as item 2

Success criteria

05 and more themes = 06 scores
03 – 04 themes = 04 scores
01 – 02 themes = 03 scores
00 themes = 00 score
Maximum score = 06

TOTAL SCORE
SECTION A = 24
SECTION B = 06
GRAND TOTAL = 30 SCORES

END

CamScanner